

Eye Candy for Dessert

A Collection of Favorite Photos from the Dishes Delish Food Blog

This book was created for, and is dedicated to, our dear and loyal
Dishes Delish subscribers with a big, fat

Thank You

for following us on our sometimes foolish, always pretty, culinary adventures and detours!

Christopher has been my biggest fan since day one of my food blogging journey. He has encouraged and supported me from buying our first camera, to caring about all the buttons and functions, to patiently enduring my lighting woes, to dressing my shots, to praising my work, and, of course, eating all of my cooking with relish.

I mean, gusto, not actual pickled relish.

He's been talking about compiling my best photos for a little while now, but since best is subjective and neither of us cares to precisely identify current photographic standards by which to measure them, he decided to call them his favorites.

We're simple like that sometimes.

- Elaine

This book shows a very fair representation of Elaine's Dishes Delish food and cocktail photos that either 1) make me happy to look at or 2) quiet my mind as I ponder their balance, proportion, and color. I'm in awe of how far she has come as a photographer and how much she is learning.

I hope you enjoy these images, set out in completely random order, as much as I do.

Cheers!
